Strategy to bring unaccounted money into economy

4296. SHRI KAMAL MORARKA: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) what is the manner in which Government look at the success of the economic reforms in the face of burgeoning problems of black money;

(b) whether Government have evolved an alternative strategy to bring unaccounted money into the economy; and

(c) if so, what are the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI RAMESHWAR THAKUR): (a) to (c) A number of factors lead to the generation of black money in the economy. These, among others, include the level and structure of taxation, the effectiveness of tax administration, controls on economic activity, general laws and regulation, political finance, inflation and standards of public morality. The policy reforms initiated by the Government in the spheres of industry, trade and financial sectors are expected to control the generation of black money in the economy. Govt. are also taking legal and administrative measures from time to time to meet the emerging situation in this area.
